

Nicholas Roth
917 Fanwood Avenue, Westifeld, NJ, 07090
Na04roth@siena.edu

Education:

Siena College, Class of 2015, Loudonville NY

- Majoring in Computer Science
- Siena Presidential Scholar
- Software Engineering Program, Database Administrator

Activities:

Boy Scouts (Achieved Eagle Scout by age 16)

President of Westfield High School Anime Club (2010-11)

Treasurer of Siena College Democrats and Gaming Club(2013-Present)

Notable Skills:

- Well versed in Microsoft Word, Excel and Java
- Some experience in Graphic Design
- Experienced in teaching new skills and leading small groups.
- Understanding of SQL and NoSQL and Database Management Protocol
- Can design basic web pages and edit more complicated ones.
- Constantly designing games for fun.
- Has a deep involvement in and understanding of social networking.

Work Experience:

-Assistant for the Siena College Computer Science Department (Fall Semester 2013)

- Managed printers
- Cleaned around the office space
- Organized mass emails
- Ran errands, made copies, etc.

-Seasonal Employment at William T. Hutchinson Company (Summers, 2010-Present)

- Machinist (Operated a centerless grinder, an electrochemical etcher and a computer numerical controlled engraving machine)
- Office Clerk (Updated pricing in company catalog and assorted filing)
- Website Designer (Added new pages fitting the style of their website)
- IT Help (Creating wired connections to the server and router)
- Inventory Manager (Renovated organizational system of company's stock metal)
- Shipping Assistant (Packaged and shipped stock to customers)
- Assorted forms of manual labor (Cleared weeds, collected trash, mopped floors, etc.)

-Volunteer Work through the Boy Scouts (2004-2011)

- Organized clean-up and installation of a picnic area in Brightwood Park
- Worked with children volunteering at the Westfield Community Center.
- Leadership and Education experience as an instructor within my troop and with a local pack of Cub Scouts.